

Privacy policy

The Swedish Contingencies Agency (the MSB) need to process your personal data when you join the Meridian community. Your personal information is required to decide if you are qualified to become a member of the Meridian community. If we accept your membership request, your personal data will be used for coordination before, during and after the conferences. The legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.

The personal data that the MSB processes about you are:

1. First name
2. Last name
3. E-mail address
4. Title
5. Organization
6. Country

Your personal data will be retained as long as you are a member of the Meridian community. If you choose to leave Meridian and cancel your membership, your personal data will be deleted as soon as we have received information that you wish to cancel your membership.

The data controller for this processing is the MSB, organization number 202100-5984. You have the right to contact us for information about which data is processed about you or to request rectification, transfer, objection or restriction of your personal data. To do this, contact registrator@msb.se. You can also contact our data protection officer via e-mail address dso@msb.se.

If you believe that we are processing your personal data incorrectly, you have the right to file a complaint with the supervisory authority, The Swedish Data Protection Authority (DPA).
